

NDI 怪獸 你好!® 工作坊

Workshop of NDI Hello Monster!®

怪獸
你好!®

TARGET PARTICIPANTS

Frontline helping professionals like social workers, psychologists, counsellors, teachers or anyone interested in psychology or expressive arts therapy

Does everyone have a monster inside? This monster could be an emotion, feeling, or thought.

When it breaks free, it can disrupt our mood, sleep, and daily life.

Narrative Drawing Intervention® (NDI®), inspired by expressive arts therapy, as well as Michael White and David Epston's narrative therapy, embraces the principle: "The person is not the problem. The problem is the problem." Through NDI®'s "Three Drawings / Expressions" – visual art, spoken words, and body language – participants embark on three transformative journeys: 1) Seeing yourself, 2) Accepting yourself, and 3) Empowering yourself. Along the way, they discover inner strength, external resources, and hope, enabling them to live a meaningful and purposeful life.

OBJECTIVES

This creative group counselling workshop helps participants learn how to conduct NDI® activities. Through warm-ups, drawings, and narratives, participants unveil their hidden "monsters" using NDI® concepts and theories. The experience enhances self-expression, social skills, trust, and security, laying the groundwork for personal growth and other group counselling sessions such as the NDI® Tree of Life.

KEY TAKEAWAYS

Participants will learn to apply NDI® effectively in one-on-one or group counselling, gaining practical skills to implement the activity immediately in their work settings.
