

Jockey Club MEL Institute Project Opening Ceremony cum Symposium on Programme Evaluation and Impact Assessment

The Department has launched the Jockey Club MEL Institute Project. Funded by The Hong Kong Jockey Club Charities Trust, the Project aims to provide a certificate training course and mentored practicum, to be augmented by an online knowledge hub, with the goal of sharing knowledge and experience of Monitoring, Evaluation and Learning (MEL) with participants.

The opening ceremony cum symposium was successfully held on 13 April at CUHK, officiated by Mr. Caspar Tsui Ying Wai, Under Secretary for Labour and Welfare, Hong Kong SAR Government, Professor Benjamin Wah Wan Sang, Provost of The Chinese University of Hong Kong and Mr. Bryan Wong, Executive Manager, Charities (Strategy and Business Management), The Hong Kong Jockey Club. In addition to the opening ceremony, Professor Tiziano Vecchiato, an internationally renowned scholar and expert in social impact assessment, was invited to deliver the keynote presentation: "MEL culture & GIA approach to make the difference: European Experience". Principal investigators of the Project including Professor Steven Ngai Sek Yum, Professor Joyce Ma Lai Chong, and Professor Jacky Cheung Chau Kiu (Department of Social and Behavioral Sciences, City University of Hong Kong) introduced the training course and online knowledge hub.
